HYMN

Praise to the Lord Lobe Den Herren, 1665
Director, Corey Andrew Nelson, Class of 1991

Praise to the Lord, the Almighty, the King of creation!
O my soul, praise Him, for He is your health and salvation!
All you who hear, now to His temple draw near,
Joining in glad adoration!

Praise to the Lord, who o'er all things is wondrously reigning,
Sheltering you under His wings and so gently sustaining.
Have you not seen? All that is needful has been Granted in all His ordaining.

Praise to the Lord, who does prosper your work and defend you;
Surely His goodness and mercy shall ever attend you!
Ponder anew what the Almighty can do,
Who with His love does befriend you.

Praise to the Lord! O let all that is in me adore Him!
All that have life and breath, come now with praises before Him!
Let the Amen sound from His people again;
Gladly always we adore Him.

ALMA MATER

Centennial Text, 1990

Whitworth we honor, proudly we'll be
Her sons and daughters, daring to see
In her great vision, so true and just,
Our noble calling, our sacred trust.

Hail, Alma Mater, we sing your praise.
Hail, Whitworth College, our colors raise:
Leading us onward, striving for right,
Drawing us upward, into God's light!

GRADUATION HONORS

Graduation honors at Whitworth College are based on the traditional Latin wording, "cum laude" (with honor), "magna cum laude" (with high honor), and "summa cum laude" (with highest honors). The criteria for these honors are based on the grade point average earned at Whitworth College, and are as follows: cum laude, 3.50 and above; magna cum laude, 3.75 and above; summa cum laude, 3.90 and above. The President's Cup is awarded to the person graduating with the highest grade point average based on four years of attendance at Whitworth College.

HONORARY DEGREES

SISTER PETER CLAVER, O.P., served as President of Sacred Heart Medical Center from 1964 to 1988, and from then until her death on January 14, 1991, as the hospital's senior executive. She was born Lucille M. Thomas in Terry, Montana, and was a member of the Sisters of Providence for fifty years, serving as a nurse and later as hospital administrator. Under her wise and highly respected leadership, Sacred Heart grew to become a major health care and research center. She was regarded as a highly successful business leader and was a major influence in the Spokane community. In 1985, Savvy Magazine featured her as one of the twelve outstanding women executives in the country. In 1988, she was honored by Pope John Paul II with an international award for service to the Pope and the Catholic Church. Her entire life was devoted selflessly to the service of God. The honorary Doctor of Humane letters was conferred upon Sister Peter Claver by Whitworth College at Convocation on September 7, 1990.

JACK W. HATCH has been a highly respected business and community leader in Eastern Washington for over forty years, and is the owner of Jack Hatch Company of Spokane and Post Falls. In addition to his professional activity in advertising, real estate and development, he has served as president of the Union Gospel Mission and chair of the mission's successful $3 million capital campaign to build a new home for the homeless. He has been president of the Better Business Bureau and the Greater Spokane Sports Association; in 1982 he served as chair of the Greater Spokane Billy Graham Crusade. He has been a trustee of the college since 1968 and served as its chair for 11 years, from 1977-'88. He received the George Whitworth Medal in 1981, and in 1988 the Centennial Plaza on the campus was dedicated in his honor. Mr. Hatch is member and elder of Millwood Presbyterian Church and has been president of the Spokane and Synod Councils of United Presbyterian Men.

THE REVEREND R. HUNTER KEEN has served as minister with the Nez Perce Churches of the Inland Empire Presbytery from 1977 to June of 1991, when he is retiring. Before that, he was minister at large on the Dakota Reservation in North Dakota for twenty years. His first church was Warminster Presbyterian Church in Pennsylvania, which he organized in 1951. Since 1977, he has pastored the six congregations of the Nez Perce reservation, empowered Native leadership in these churches, and trained the commissioned lay preachers who will carry on his ministry after his retirement. Thanks to his work, spiritual leadership has been returned to the Nez Perce for the first time in eighty years. He is widely respected as a quiet and effective servant and equipper of the church. He developed the course in reformed theology widely used for extension education among Native Americans and Alaskans. His daughters attended Whitworth College, and he has frequently lectured on campus. He serves the Presbyterian Church as a consultant on Native American ministry.

□ Appearance of a name on this program is presumptive evidence of graduation, but it must not be regarded as conclusive. The Diploma of the college, signed and sealed by its officers, remains the official testimony of the possession of the degree.

□ Preliminary honors appearing in this program are based upon only seven terms of academic work. Final honors recognition will appear on transcripts and will be based upon the Whitworth academic work leading to graduation.

ACADEMIC COSTUME

Academic Costume is a tradition dating from the middle ages, when long robes and hoods were everyday attire, designed to protect against the cold and drafts of medieval university halls. It remains the regular costume at some British universities.

The many variations among academic dress are not incidental, but are rich in meaning. Each costume represents both the degree held by the wearer and the institution which awarded it. While in Europe each university has been free to adopt whatever designs it wished, a considerable degree of standardization has been achieved in the United States. Following are some of the elements of the code of academic dress.

HOODS. The hood, which is draped down the back, carries more symbolic significance than any other part of the costume. The border, extending over the shoulders to meet in a V at the front, indicates by its colors the discipline in which the degree was earned. Colors for some of the faculties are: white, arts, letters, humanities; cream, social science; dark blue, philosophy; light blue, education; scarlet, theology; pink, music; golden yellow, natural science; lemon, library science; drab, business, accounting; and sage green, physical education.

The lining of the hood, partly exposed, is in the colors of the university which granted the degree (for Whitworth, red and black). Doctor's hoods are longer than Master's hoods and have a wider border. Bachelor's degree recipients do not wear hoods.

GOWNS. Black gowns are the rule, but a few universities use other colors: Stanford crimson, Yale blue, Columbia slate gray, for example. Doctor's gowns are most readily recognizable by three horizontal velvet bars on each sleeve, either black or in the color of the discipline in which the degree was granted. Most Doctor's gowns also have velvet panels down the front. The typical Master's and Bachelor's gowns do not have decorated panels or sleeves.

CAPS. The familiar hard-topped mortarboard, or "Oxford cap," has long been standard, but a soft tam is increasingly common. The tassels are usually black or the color of the discipline. Doctor's tassels are usually metallic gold.

THE BANNERS

The banners carry the seals of the Presbyterian Church, USA, and of Whitworth College. Designed for the 1988 Commencement by Professor "Spike" Grosvenor and constructed by "Spike" Grosvenor, Erlene Grosvenor, and Barbara Filo, these banners are a permanent part of the Commencement exercises.
